EMPLOYMENT

University of Virginia – School of Continuing and Professional Studies
Center for Public Safety & Justice (10/2024 – Present)
Associate Professor of Public Safety & Justice (7/2026)
Assistant Professor of Public Safety & Justice (3/2021 – 6/2026)
Sr. Director – Public Safety & Justice Programs (1/2023 – 3/2026)
Program Director – Master of Public Safety (3/2021 – 12/2022)
I am a full-time faculty member and faculty senator for the university. I served as unit director (department chair) responsible for curriculum development and delivery and student recruitment and advising for the initial launch and growth of a graduate degree (MPS) and two well-established certificate programs (National Criminal Justice Command College (NCJCC) and the FBI National Academy (NA)). I managed salaried and adjunct faculty and staff, in addition to contractors/consultants.

I launched the MPS degree program in 2021, admitting the first 72 students. Since then the program has grown to more than 1,000 students. Between 2022 and 2024 I led the development of the concept, proposal, and establishment of the Center for Public Safety and Justice, which encompasses the programs I led, as well as research, innovation, networking, and noncredit offerings. I grew the department from one faculty member (me) in 2021, to 11 salaried and 40 adjunct faculty by 2026. In 2025-2026 I led the design and initial approval for a new Doctor of Public Safety Administration (DPSA) program with a planned launch in Fall 2027.

American River College – McClellan & Sacramento Regional Public Safety Training Center
Dean of Public Safety (1/2020 – 2/2021)
I served as an instructional dean and member of the Administrative Leadership Council for the college. I also served as the academic administrator for the McClellan Center (satellite campus), which provides the full range of general education as well as all courses in the Administration of Justice and Fire

Technology Departments, which I oversaw. I managed more than a dozen full-time staff, six full-time faculty, and approximately 200 adjunct faculty engaged in delivery of semester-based and intensive courses to more than 3,000 full-time student equivalents. During my tenure I led the March 2020 (Covid) transition to fully online instruction and later that year led the reopening of on-campus instruction.

California State University, Sacramento – Department of Sociology
Lecturer (8/2019 – 7/2020)
I taught an upper-division undergraduate lecture course in Criminology (Sociology 155) to 80 students—primarily majors in the Criminal Justice and Sociology degree programs. As a broad survey course in criminology, I covered everything from classic and contemporary theories of crime to policing, courts, and corrections, to victimology and restorative justice. I used a variety of techniques and materials including current events and media, in-class polling, and online discussion boards (Canvas).

Term	Role	Course
2019, Fall	Lecturer	SOC-155 Criminology

CPS Human Resources
Trainer (1/2019 – 12/2019)
I delivered public sector supervision, management, and leadership training courses to state, local government, and special district employees. I used an interactive classroom and Socratic questioning techniques to guide learners and facilitate group learning from participant knowledge and experiences. Courses ranged from eight hours to five days and class sizes range from 10-30 participants.

Term	Role	Course
2019, Summer	Trainer	Basic Supervision I
2019, Spring	Trainer	Basic Supervision II
		Motivation and Teams
		Effective Change Management
		Communicating Effectively
		Conflict Resolution
		Managing Stress

Org Management Group, LLC
Managing Partner (10/2018 – Present)
I provide management consulting, training, and security solutions to a variety of organizations including the University of Southern California and PBK-REDI. Specialties include Change Management, School Safety/Security, and Strategic Planning. I coordinate RFP/RFQ response development and collaboration across multiple consulting groups (subcontracts, etc.).

California State Assembly
Chief Sergeant-at-Arms (1/2017 – 9/2018)
I was elected as the 50th Sergeant-at-Arms and served as an officer of the Assembly for its 2017-2018 term with law enforcement, protocol, and administrative responsibilities to provide a safe, secure, and positive environment at the State Capitol and legislative office buildings. I managed a staff of 60 (30 sworn officers) and had an operating budget of approximately $3 million. I planned, directed, managed, and oversaw activities including law enforcement, protective services, physical security, fire and life safety systems, surveillance and alarms systems, liaison with local, state, national, and international law enforcement agencies, emergency medical services, disaster response, terrorism readiness, incident management, optics, and related support services. Specifics included:

- Access control for 3,000+ personnel—ID cards, RFID badges, keys
- Parking/vehicle/loading dock access management in Downtown Sacramento
- Fire systems/panels, alarms, surveillance camera systems—500,000+ square feet
- Public, tenant, tourist, and vendor relations, safety/security—2,000,000+ entrances a year
- X-Ray and magnetometer screening of people, mail, packages
- Globally-operational dignitary protection details on five continents
- Responsible for continuity of operations, evacuation, and mass notification systems/plans
- Coordination with area emergency services—Sacramento PD/Fire, CHP, FBI, DHS, etc.
- Active participation in the design and planning phases of the State Capitol renovation ($1.2 billion) including swing space and construction security logistics

Stockton Unified School District – Police Department
Chief of Police (4/2014 – 1/2017)
I served as a member of the Superintendent's Cabinet and had policy input and collaborative responsibility for the work of more than 4,000 employees and annual budgets in excess of $500 million. I had direct management responsibility for law enforcement, campus safety and security, and emergency services for approximately 50,000 students, faculty, and staff at more than 60 locations in the City of Stockton and San Joaquin County and an annual operating budget of $10 million.

The Police Department is a full-service, 24/7, POST-certified agency with 37 sworn, 11 professional, and ~90 civilian safety and security personnel. The Police Department has primary law enforcement responsibility on school campuses, as well as for students traveling to/from school or to/from a school-sponsored event. The Police Department is also contracted to provide policing services to the San Joaquin Regional Transit District and the Manteca Unified School District. Significant accomplishments and specific assignments/responsibilities included:

- Creation of the department's first three-year Strategic Plan
- Restructuring of the department to align resources with identified needs
- Fingerprinting and background checks on all employees and volunteers in the District
- Operational oversight/monitoring of District alarm and surveillance camera systems
- Development of emergency drills and training for all sites and personnel
- Collective bargaining and labor relations with multiple bargaining units
- Coordination with Student Services for crisis and truancy interventions

The John Standish Consulting Group
Senior Consultant (9/2011 – 12/2016)
Responsibilities included RFA/RFP development, program evaluation, and criminal justice consulting. My work for the firm included program evaluation for the International Association of Chiefs of Police.
